Through JBF's partnership with Windstar Cruises, we have created a series of food-themed itineraries hosted by James Beard Foundation-recognized chefs to immerse guests in epicurean adventures that bring together the best of travel and cuisine from around the globe. The voyages will feature nightly dishes curated by the headlining chef, who will also perform cooking demonstrations, interact with guests, and lead off-ship excursions to local markets and other sights.

- 2 cooking demonstrations on board - recipes included
- Market tour with the Chef

Meet The Chef - Chef Larry Forgione

Larry Forgione has been called "The Godfather of American Cuisine" for his role in changing the way Americans eat today. He embraced the virtues of our national cuisine and used only seasonal, local ingredients, beginning the entire "Farm-to-Table" movement. Chef Forgione opened An American Place in 1983 and his cookbook for the restaurant won a James Beard Award for "Best American Cookbook" in 1996. The Culinary Institute of America presented him with an award as the "Pioneer of American Cuisine" for his far-reaching influence.
